

The Three Wishes

Give Them Some Help!

So the little old man and his little old wife used up their three wishes without really thinking.

Write a letter to the man and his wife and give them some advice.

Include these things in your letter:

What do you think they should or could have wished for?

How to handle it if the fairy gives them another 3 wishes

How can they make the most of what they got from their wishes?

