

Snow White Super Rat

Word Work

Types of Words

Now you have read "Snow White Super Rat", can you work with the words in the story?

You will remember that words come in different types. The most common are nouns (the names of things), verbs (words for actions) and adjectives (describing words). Here is an example:

My pet cat (noun) thinks (verb) sardines are delicious (adjective).

Here are words from the story, all mixed up. Can you put them in the correct column below?

amazement answered body crazy eraser everyone feed feral frozen furry growled interesting mountain peered principal school sensitive stampeded strange swallow trousers unpacked valuable whispered

NOUNS

VERBS

ADJECTIVES